Monday, April 7th, 1746. [Numb. 628]

His MAJESTY's Moſt Gracious Speech, Delivered to both Houſes of Parliament on Tueſday the Fourteenth Day of January laſt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AT the Opening of this Seſſion of Parliament, I did not think it proper to lay any Thing before you for your Conſideration, but what immediately related to the preſent unnatural Rebellion, and our Security at home.

The daring Attempt, which the Rebels have ſince made upon this Part of my Kingdoms, has been happily diſappointed; and, as their precipitate Flight before a ſmall Number of my Troops, muſt greatly diſpirit their Followers; ſo, that inviolable Duty and Loyalty, which have been ſo univerſally and ſteadily ſhewn by my faithful Subjects, and ſhall never be forgotten by me, muſt convince them, how vain and ill grounded their Hopes are, of any Addition of Strength from ſuch an Enterprize. I have not only ſent a conſiderable Body of our National Forces into Scotland, and ordered the Heſſian Troops in my Pay to be landed there; but have alſo made ſuch a Diſpoſition of the reſt of my Forces, by Land, as well as by Sea, that I hope, by the Bleſſing of God, this Rebellion will, in a ſhort Time, be extinguiſhed, and our Enemies, who have ſo long menaced us with an Invaſion, be deterred by the ſeaſonable Preparations made for our Defence.

The Election of the Emperor, which I very zealouſly promoted, was an Event of great Importance, not only to the Support of the Houſe of Auſtria, but to the Liberties of Europe in general. I did alſo, during the Courſe of the laſt Year, exert my earneſt Endeavours to bring about an Accommodation between the Empreſs, the King of Poland, and the King of Pruſſia, and laid a proper Foundation for it, by the Convention made between me, and the King of Pruſſia. This great Work being at length perfected, under my Mediation, by the Treaty lately concluded at Dreſden, the interior Tranquility of Germany amongſt the Princes of the Empire is now reſtored. My next Care has been, and ſhall continue to be applied to improve this Accommodation to the beſt Advantage, by procuring an immediate Succour to be ſent to Italy, and ſuch a Strength for the Defence and Security of the United Provinces, as may preſerve that Republick, the ancient and natural Ally of this Kingdom, and one main Support of the Proteſtant Cauſe, from the Deſtruction with which it is threatened, as well as to attain a ſafe and honourable Peace. The States General have made the moſt preſſing Inſtances to me to aſſiſt them in this difficult Conjuncture. The imminent Dangers to which they are, at preſent, expoſed, which do ſo nearly affect the Safety of Great Britain, as well as the very Being of Holland, call for our moſt ſerious Attention; for the Intereſts of the Two Nations are ſo united, that whatſoever brings Ruin upon the one, muſt, in Conſequence, be attended with the moſt fatal Miſchiefs to the other. Theſe Reaſons have induced me to aſſure the States, that I will, to the utmoſt of my Power, according to the Circumſtances of my own Dominions, co operate with them towards oppoſing the further Progreſs of our Enemies in the Netherlands, and procuring a proper Security for the Republick againſt the ambitious and deſtructive Deſigns of France. In order to this neceſſary End, Meaſures are now actually concerting between Me, and the States, for furniſhing the Aſſiſtance on my Part, as early and effectual as poſſible, and for their making ſuch an Augmentation of their preſent Forces, as their own immediate Preſervation, and the Neceſſity of Affairs, abſolutely require.

The great Advantages, which we have received from our naval Strength, in protecting the Commerce of my Subjects, and intercepting and diſtreſſing that of our Enemies, have been happily experienced by the former, and ſeverely felt by the latter. I am therefore determined to be particularly attentive to this important Service, and to have Fleets at Sea early in the Spring, as may be ſufficient to defend our Coaſts effectually, and effectually to annoy our Enemies.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

It is with much Regret, that I find myſelf obliged to aſk any farther Aids of my People. I am ſo ſenſible of the Burthens they endure, that nothing could give me ſo ſincere a Pleaſure as to lighten them. But the Conſiderations, I have laid before you, are ſo neceſſary to our Preſervation, that I doubt not, you will grant me ſuch a Supply, as ſhall be ſufficient for theſe Purpoſes. The proper Eſtimates ſhall ſoon be laid before you; and I earneſtly recommend it to you, to take the moſt effectual Methods to maintain the Publick Credit in this Conjuncture.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have fully opened to you my Views and Intentions, which are ſo eſſential to the Honour of my Crown, and the true Intereſt and Well being of my Kingdoms, that I depend on your vigorous Support, and the utmoſt Unanimity and Diſpatch in your Proceedings.

DEAL, November 25.

ARRIVED this Morning his Majeſty's Ship the Sheerneſs, and brought in the Sun, a French Privateer, which ſhe took the 22d Inſtant off the Dogger Bank: She came from Dunkirk the 21ſt Inſtant, bound to Montroſe in Scotland, and has on board a great many Officers, French, Scotch, and Iriſh.

LONDON, November 26.

By private Letters this Morning from Deal we have Advice, that the French Privateer brought in by Capt. Bulley, of his Majeſty's Ship the Sheerneſs, has on board a great Quantity of Arms, &c. and among the Priſoners is the Earl of Derwentwater, with 20 Colonels and Captains, French, Scotch, and Iriſh, and 60 other People, beſides the Ship's Crew; and there is great Reaſon to believe the Pretender's 2d Son is on board this Ship.

A few Days ago two Men were taken up at Cheſter and committed to Goal, on ſuſpicion of being Spies; they had been to deliver a Letter at a Perſon of Diſtinction's Houſe, who was not at home, and had received a diſagreeable Anſwer from his Son; that thereupon one of them, who ſeem'd to be the Principal, ſaid he knew nothing of the Contents, that he was a Grocer in Cumberland, and his Name Pattiſon, and went away to an Inn; where it being obſerved, that the Man who was with him often inadvertently called him my Lord, they were both taken up and committed. — As it is mentioned in ſome Letters, that the Marquis of Tullibardine diſappeared of a ſudden, after the taking of Carliſle, it is not impoſſible that his Lordſhip may be ſecured in the Shape of the Grocer.

Our Accounts from Carliſle take Notice of the many deteſtable and ſhocking Villanies of the Highlanders during their Poſſeſſion of that City; for, not content with ſtripping ſeveral Families of their moſt valuable Effects, they ſcrupled not to make free with the Perſons of ſeveral young Ladies there; particularly one writes Word, "That after being in a Manner ſtripp'd of every "Thing, he had the Miſery to ſee his Three Daughters treated "in ſuch a Manner that he could not bear to relate it.

We hear that as ſoon as the Packet arrived at Harwich with the Dutch Mails, two Perſons were taken on board by his Ma-

jeſty's

Jelly's Messengers, and their Papers seiz'd, which we hear are of the greatest Consequence.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 7.

On Easter Monday, being the 31st of March, came on the Election of Church Wardens, Vestry men, and other Officers for the Parish of St Philip's Charles Town, when the following Gentlemen were chosen, viz.

Mr John Moultrie, and James Wright, Esq; Church Wardens.

Messrs. Robert Pringle, James Mitchie, Benjamin Smith, David Crew, William Hopton, George Seaman, and John Hume, Vestry-Men

Messrs. Richard Shubrick, John McCall, Kenneth Mackie, Charles Shepheard and Thomas Smith, jun Commissioners of the Market and Work House

Messrs. Otterel Beale, Alexander Peronneau, William Woodrop, John Lawton, and John Daniel, Fire Masters

And, George Seaby, Esq; Commissioner of the Highways, in the Room of Col Miles Brewton deceased.

On Monday last arrived here Capt. Thompson, from St Kitts, who informs us, that Admiral Townshend with six Ships of the Line was sail'd for Cape Breton

And the next Day arriv'd a Vessel from Antigua, by which we learn, that Admiral Townshend had been obliged to return to that Island with Two other Ships of his Squadron, having suffered prodigiously in a Storm; but that the Princessa and Two other Men of War continued their Course for Cape Breton. And that the French Privateers ply very briskly about there, taking our Vessels not only in Sight of Antigua, but even of the Admiral and whole British Fleet, before whom one of them lately attack'd a Ship from Bristol, commanded by Capt. Ignel Allen, at the Harbour's Mouth, but he fought her an Hour and happily got in.

We hear, that Culcheth Golightly, Esq; was married on Monday to Mrs Mary Elliott, a very agreeable young Lady, with a good Fortune.
